Learning to write a persuasive letter.

Dear Mr Giant,

I am writing to you because I'm heart broken that you shut your garden.

I am so so bored that you shut your massive garden. Why did you shut your garden up?

If you open up your garden all the sweet little birds will come back.
What lovely songs the birds sing!
If you open your garden all the nature will come back. It would mean the world to me if you opened your garden.

Firstly, the wildlife will come back and we can be friends. Please open your garden up! If you open your garden up you won't be lonely or sad and have friends.
I hope I persuaded you. I wish you'll open your garden! I really don't want to play in my own garden. I'm so so frustrated that you shut your garden. I'm so so mad that you shut your garden that I could just scream. PS I absolutely love your garden.

Your Faithful Eden.
