

Birchwood's Book Swap is Returning!

Do you love reading? Do you need some new books to add to your collection? Do you want to save a bit of money while still adding to your book collection?

Birchwood's Book Swap will be returning again this academic year so make sure you add the following dates to your calendar!

Please queue at the Conference Room door and wait to be let in.

Children and adult books on offer.

Simply swap a book you no longer read/want for one of our books or take a book and leave a small voluntary donation.
