

Learning to: Write a recount about our school trip

Mary Arden's Farm

By: Faith Ann Walker

On Wednesday 18th July, 2022, we went to Mary Arden's Farm. We went to learn about what Tudor life would have been like. Mr. Hammerley, Mr. Fairless, Mrs. Allbrighton and Mrs. Dack came too.

Firstly, we went on the coach. It took 50 minutes to get there! Everyone was really noisy. The worst thing was that the boys were singing. I sat next to Charlie.

After, we had got off the coach, there was a big room we had to go into. It had loads of cushions in and a big curtain too. Outside, it was covered in lavender and lots of other beautiful plants too.

Then, we got dressed into Tudor clothes. The girls wore a linen top, hat and apron but we also wore a beautiful wicker bag. The boys also had to wear a linen top but the rest of the outfit was very different. They wore a wicker jacket lined with linen. They also wore wicker shoes. Then they wore big woolly socks that came up to their knees!

Next, we went to make some ^{little} breads. They were a bit like little breads made out of wood. We made them on a sort like piece of wood. It was a bit like ~~wood~~ boards to be honest.

Following ~~Following~~ this, we made a wall hanging of the Tudor rose. It is red, white, yellow and green. The rose is made up of Lancaster and ~~Yorkshire~~.

Later on, we made some bread. We didn't make any more dough because it wouldn't be ready in ^{fortunate} time ~~time~~. The group before us had made some ^{dough} that had set. We ^{Kneaded} it and made it into balls. The last part ^{dough} was so that we were the first ones to taste the ^{bread}.

Afterwards, we had our lunch. It was ^{really} loud because everybody was arguing if we could take our hats off.

Shortly after, we saw mistress Roseane make some butter. She had to churn it with her hand ^{until} it was ^{thick enough}. ^{Everybody} was shouting, "come butter come!" or, "butter butter!"

Next, we went to see how Tudors ate. They were ^{very} polite, they had ^{to} wait for ^{their} master to sit down and wait for him ^{or her} to eat.

Later, we did some Tudor dancing. We did two steps right, then two steps ^{left} then 1 step right then two one step left. The last move was 3 stamps. Simple! ✓

After, we watched the galleon show. It nearly touched us! We sat in rows of four and each time it glowed over us it got lower and lower. ✓

Finally, we got changed and went back to school. ✓

This has been the best trip ever. It was exciting & fun and entertaining. I LOVED IT!!! ✓
